CHANG TSO-LIN TO SEND BACK RAILWAY CARS AND REVENUES

Mukden Warlord's Envoy Talks To Dr. Wang

NO FEAR OF WU

Chihli Leader Working Overtime On Recruiting

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Sept. 11.—General Chang Tso-lin's representative, General Pao, informally interviewing Dr. Wang Chung-huai on Saturday informed Dr. Wang that he expects that General Chang will return all the rolling stock and salt funds unconditionally.

General Chang recently stated that the attitude of the Chihli forces was causing him anxiety but he feared that if a foreign loan were procured it would find its way into the pockets of the Chihli militarists. He says he will never attack unless in defence.

It is reported that General Wu Pei-fu is still recruiting and that his arsenals are still turning out munitions but he says this is not intended for offensive action.

Equally peaceful news has been received from Canton. General Chen Chiung-ming recently stated that Kwangtung is anxious to live on good terms with its neighbors and to devote its efforts to the improvement of internal administration. General Chen says he thoroughly approves Peking drafting the constitution and he is prepared to be conciliatory even if some of the terms do not appeal to his judgment.

BERLIN IS CALM DESPITE FAILURE OF NEGOTIATIONS

Poincare Again Threatens To Take "Independent Action"

(Reuter's Service)

London, Sept. 11.—The failure of the Belgo-German negotiations has not been taken tragically in Berlin, partly, no doubt, owing to the prospect of an early resumption.

The Vorwaerts expresses the hope that the Reparations Commission will not now automatically enforce its decision that if Germany failed to reach an agreement with Belgium she should secure her financial obligations to the end of the year by depositing gold abroad.

The Germania is convinced that Belgium would accept an extension of six months on Treasury Bills if the Reparations Commission did not object but this possibility is not admitted in the Allied capitals, as necessitating the other Allies to consent to forego their share of reparations after the end of the year and this is regarded as most unlikely, especially in view of the phrase in M. Poincare's speech at Meaux yesterday, reiterating his determination to recover debts from Germany, in which connection France would, if necessary, he declared, take strong independent action.

The present alternative seems to be to deposit gold abroad, which, however, is regarded unfavorably in London as heralding a further depreciation in the value of the mark.

Berlin, Sept. 10.—The Belgian and German negotiations on the subject of reparations and guarantees concluded today practically without result owing to the Belgian's refusal to agree to the German request to extend treasury bills to 18 months instead of six.

Nevertheless, an agreement was reached on minor points, notably the Reichsbank guarantee. The Belgians are hopeful that they will resume the conversations later.

Herr Stinnes' leading organ, the Allgemeine Zeitung, commenting on the failure of the negotiations, says that it is useless for Germany to promise what she cannot fulfil. She is not in a position to offer guarantees for payment and this hard fact must shatter all attempts to settle the guarantee question.

FOOCHOW COAST CAUGHT TYPHOON DURING THE NIGHT

Siccawei Issues Warning; Rough Weather Due For Yellow Sea

The typhoon which has been threatening the coast to the South was due to land last night between Wenchow and Foochow, according to an urgent warning issued by Siccawei Observatory at 9 p.m.

In consequence of the storm rough weather is to be expected over the Eastern and Yellow Seas, the warning announced and the weather report indicates squalls for Shanghai today.

Another typhoon center is reported following the one just landed, coming from the East of Luzon and advancing Northwestward.

Commercial School Draws Many From Other Provinces

Y.M.C.A. Institution Opens With Enrollment Of 436

With an enrollment of 436 students the High School of Commerce of the Shanghai Y.M.C.A. opened yesterday.

Among the students 120 are from other provinces and are living in the Association dormitory. New courses have been added in Marketing, Banking, Accounting and Secretarial Training. Mr. K. L. Kwong, M. B. A., a recent graduate of the School of Business Administration of Harvard University, is in charge of the commercial training.

The Evening School of Commerce will open its fall term on Friday this week. Preparations are being made for 900 students, which is the limit of the capacity of the present building.

The Association has opened two schools in the French Concession near the Ningpo Guild. The Vocational Preparatory School opening on September 15, which will meet during the day, will offer four years of work, corresponding to the lower middle school standards of the new national educational system. This is equal to the last three years of the higher primary and the first two of the middle school. Special emphasis will be laid on English, Chinese and Arithmetic in order to give a thorough foundation and training for work in offices. An effort is being made to furnish educational opportunities to the sons of the shopkeepers and tradesmen of the middle class, who by the tuition fees are only expected to pay half of the expenses of the school, the remainder will be made up by funds gathered in a campaign for the school.

The six evening classes of the extension school will open on September 18. Altogether an enrollment of 300 students is expected.

AMERICAN MAIL OUT TOMORROW BY TAIYO MARU

Next Incoming Mail Due On President Jackson Sept. 19

The next mail for America will be despatched tomorrow on the T.K.K. steamer Taiyo Maru, which is due to arrive off Woosung from Hongkong early in the morning and will sail in the evening. Incoming passengers are expected to reach the Customs Jetty about 9:30 a.m. and the tender with outgoing passengers will leave at 4 p.m.

The next mail from America is due by the President Jackson of the Admiral Line on September 19.

The Admiral Line steamer President Madison sailed from Shanghai with passengers and mails early Sunday afternoon. The ship is scheduled to reach Seattle on September 26.

TYPHOON DELAYS TRADE MISSION ON U.S. CUTTER

Secretary Of Commerce Huston And Party At Fusan

The United States cutter Mojave, with Assistant U. S. Secretary of Commerce Huston and party aboard, has been delayed at Fusan by the typhoon in the North, according to word received by the American Commercial Attache here Sunday, and probably will not reach Shanghai before the end of the week.

It had been expected that Secretary Huston and his accompanying party of commercial and scientific experts might reach this port Sunday. Preparations for the reception and entertainment of the delegation, which is touring the Orient in the interests of American trade relations, are being made by Chinese and American commercial organisations here.

Noted Speakers To Address Pan-Pacific Association At Annual Meeting Saturday

Two hundred and fifty covers are being prepared for the annual tiffin-meeting of the Pan-Pacific Association at the Carlton Cafe on Saturday. There will be an informal reception at 12:15 o'clock when the guests will be given a chance to meet Mr. Alexander Hume Ford, director of the Pan-Pacific Union of Honolulu and the tiffin will begin punctually at 12:30 o'clock.

Mr. Yang Tcheng, China's envoy to the International Red Cross Convention at Bankok and president of the association, will act toastmaster, while Mr. Ford, Mr. Julean Arnold, United States Commercial Attache; Admiral Tsai Ting-kan, chairman of the International Tariff Revision Commission; Dr. David Z. T. Yui, general secretary of the Y.M.C.A., consular officials and other prominent speakers will address the meeting.

Representatives of Pan-Pacific countries will be requested to give five-minute talks on "What contribution is the people of my country making to the welfare of China?"

The resolution committee will submit certain resolutions to be considered by the meeting. A Hawaiian Orchestra under the conductorship of Mr. John Zane, will play. Reservations for the tiffin must be made beforehand with Mr. George A. Fitch of the Chinese Y.M.C.A., at Central 5200. The Carlton management is preparing a special menu for the occasion.

This year the meeting is especially significant in that it is to be held one day before Balboa Day, celebrated in several Pacific countries in honor of the discoverer of the mighty ocean. In many Pacific countries, it is now customary to observe this day by an appropriate gathering, at which are speakers from each race habitating along the shores of the ocean, so honoring the memory of Vasco Nunez de Balboa, who on the heights of the isthmus of Panama first beheld the waters of the present theater of the world's commerce.

On September 17 1915, Queen Liliuokalani of Hawaii, inaugurated at the Ocean's crossroad a Pan-Pacific pageant, followed by a banquet of men of all Pacific races and gave to the 17th of September the name "Balboa" or "Pan-Pacific Day." The next year in San Diego in the great Pan-Pacific Building at the exposition, Balboa Day was celebrated and cables exchanged with Hawaii's Queen, John Barrett, president of the Pan-American Union in Washington and other distinguished supporters of the Hands-Around-the-Pacific Movement. This has been repeated in many Pacific cities ever since.

In Shanghai this year, the association is especially fortunate in having with it Mr. Ford, who may be considered as the father of Pan-Pacificism, devoting his entire energy to the promotion of better understanding between all races, whose habitation border the great ocean. Mr. Ford is a forceful speaker, used to address immense crowds in the United States and other countries.

At the third World's Christian Citizenship Conference in Pittsburg, Pa, in November 1919, Mr. Ford spoke on "Pan-Pacific Ideals." So great was the crowd wishing to attend the session that it was necessary to address an overflow meeting of more than 5,000 persons, who could not be crowded into the largest auditorium in Pittsburg.

CHIAOTUNG HEADS OUTLAWED AFTER KAO'S PETITION

Brother Of Ex-President And Two Vice-ministers Are Charged

A Presidential Mandate under date of September 10 ordered the arrest and trial of Hsu Shih-chiang, former Vice-minister of Communications and brother of the ex-president; Tseng Hun-nien, Vice-minister of Communications during the administration of Yeh Kung-cho; Chao Ching-hua, formerly Managing-director of the Shanghai Nanking Railway and Ho Jui-chang, a Chiaotung clique adherent.

The mandate was issued as the result of the petition filed by Kao En-hung, Minister of Communications, who alleged that Hsu had embezzled a huge sum of money belonging to the government while the other three had been guilty of inciting laborers working for the national railroads to strike.

The allegation of Kao against all have been previously denied by the alleged culprits. Former president Hsu had himself informed Kao that he could guarantee that there was no irregularities in the account of the Chiaotungpu, while Tseng, Ho and Chao had each issued statements that the recent strike on the Peking-Hankow and Peking-Suiyuan Railways had nothing to do with them.

Both Tseng and Chao are at present residing in the French Concession of Shanghai.

Reserve Judgment In Forgery Action Over Candle Labels

Defendants Testify In Price And Company Case

There was a further hearing at the Mixed Court yesterday of the case in which three Chinese are charged with using forged labels purporting to be labels for Messrs. Price and Company's candles. At the conclusion of the hearing Assessor Mead and Magistrate Li announced that judgment would be delivered next week.

The first accused, testifying, declared that he had nothing to do with the matter, but that forged labels seized by the police had been mortgaged to one of his shop-assistants. He admitted that members of his family had burned 1,000 of the labels but maintained that this was not done under his instructions. The second accused said that 4,000 labels were mortgaged to him for $10 by a man who said he needed money. If the $10 was not returned in ten days he was at liberty to dispose of the labels and he had sold about 3,000 of them at $4 per thousand. It was the third accused, he said, who urged him to accept the labels.

Mr. L. K. Kentwell and Major C. P. Holcomb appeared for the accused and Detective Sub-Inspector Conduit conducted the prosecution.

SPECIAL BUREAU

The service will be a Government concern of a temporary character.

CUT TWO DAYS FROM TIME OF EMPRESS SHIPS

Canada And Australia To Make Vancouver In 14 Days; Omit Manila

The giant new Canadian Pacific liners Empress of Canada and Empress of Australia are to be put on a 14-day schedule from Shanghai to Vancouver in future, thus lopping two days from the present running time, according to announcement made by the local offices of the company yesterday.

Heretofore it has been the custom of the Canadian Pacific to despatch their ships from Hongkong on a Thursday, from Shanghai on the Saturday following and from Yokohama on the Saturday following. Henceforth the Empress of Canada and the Empress of Australia will be despatched from Hongkong on a Saturday—two days later than previously—and from Shanghai on the Monday following, while the sailing day from Yokohama will continue to be Saturday and the arrival day in Vancouver will also be the same as before.

The Empress of Canada and the Empress of Australia will not call at Manila.

Wife Calls Movie "Hero" A "Villain"

William S. Hart & Winifred Westover

WILLIAM S. Hart, two-gun hero of Wild West screen dramas, is about to be sued for divorce by his wife, Winifred Westover, who played opposite him until they were married on December 21, 1921. The grounds for divorce will be "extreme cruelty." It is also reported Mrs. Hart may enter suit against Hart's sister, Mary, on the ground of alienation of his affections. Hart bitterly denies his wife's charges. It is said property arrangements have been made for Mrs. Hart, as well as her unborn child, which she expects in September. Will Hays, Czar of the Movies, made vain efforts to effect a reconciliation.

Nobody Loves The Movies

They Make America Ridiculous To Chinese, Say Missionaries

(China Press Service)

Pasadena, Cal., Aug. 20.—The American motion picture was blamed for the troubles of American missionaries in the Orient in a report from the Women's Board of Foreign Missions, presented here at the annual sessions of the Presbyterian synods of Arizona and California.

The report said the Orientals, viewing Western pictures, concluded all Americans are barbaric savages who gamble for a living, drink whiskey like water, carry two guns and a bowie knife and kill their fellow men as a pastime; that American women are dance hall girls who smoke cigarettes, drink heavily and "sell themselves for a coin or a smile."

They Make China Ridiculous To World, Says Student Leader

(Reuter's Service)

London, Sept. 11.—Speaking at Edinburgh at the annual conference of the Union of Chinese Students in Great Britain Mr. Mon, the President, protested against the erroneous idea of Chinese life propagated by films and novels in which the Chinese are depicted as murderers and barbarians living in a land of mystery where impossible things were possible.

These ideas were furthered by a type of Chinese "East Ender" who was taken as a model. Mr. Mon asserted that the Chinese regretted and resented the presence of these people and would like to see the whole lot shipped back to China. He advised students to endeavor to remove this erroneous impression by personal contact while they were in Britain.

Russ Delegates Lay Down Law At Changchun Parley

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Changchun, Sept. 10.—After adjourning for three days while the Russian Delegation communicated with Moscow and Chita regarding the disagreement on the scope of the conference, the Changchun Conference resumed session this afternoon.

The Russian delegates, acting on instructions from Moscow and Chita, maintained their former view that the negotiations must be conducted between Soviet Russia and the Far Eastern Republic on the one hand and Japan on the other and that neither negotiations nor agreement can be limited to Far Eastern questions alone.

The Japanese replied that they would give their answer at Monday's meeting.

Foreigners Held By Bandits At Kaifeng

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Sept. 11.—Reuter's correspondent at Kaifeng says that regular troops attacked the bandits in the region of Shangchow yesterday from the west. In the melee following the Chinese prisoners escaped but the two foreign engineers remain in captivity.

Bandits recently attacked the Middle School in the eastern suburb of Loyang and carried off the Principal Superintendent and 39 students, all of whom, except five students, have since been liberated.

SPINNERS PLAN TO TAKE VOTE ON SHORTER HOURS

Will Make No Effort Toward Limiting Other Than Surplus Output

(Reuter's Service)

London, Sept. 9.—The general committee of the Federation of Master Cotton Spinners today considered the question of short-time and decided to take a ballot of the spinners of American cotton on the question of closing down at four o'clock on Friday and Mondays. The Committee will meet on September 19 to consider the result.

The Committee did not consider further sectionalising of the American cotton branch and this is regarded as indicating that the Committee, far from intending to deal with the whole of the cotton trade on an organised basis, is not even dealing with the spinning section as a whole.

If the sectionalising idea is carried out it will apparently only be with the object of limiting the output of a portion of the mills using American cotton, namely those producing more than they can satisfactorily sell. Thus it is clear that the Committee does not intend to invite other sections of the trade to join in reviving the old Cotton Control Board in a modified form.

TURKEY'S BIG VICTORY MAY GIVE POWERS NEW PROBLEM

London Newspapers Fear Possible Balkan Crisis

DECISION WAITS

Kemalists Continue To Press Military Advantage

(Reuter's Service)

London, September 11.—The anxiety of the London papers regarding the Near East situation is tempered with a note of confidence that the Allies are bound speedily to arrange a common front in their own interests. They welcome the indications in the French press voicing a realisation of this and all agree that the situation demands speedy and firm handling. They foreshadow a swift march of events in diplomatic quarters within the next few days.

The Daily Telegraph's military correspondent discusses the possibility of withdrawing the garrison from the Straits unless we are sure that the Allies will stand by us or that we will be able alone or with other help to hold it ourselves, but this contingency is nowhere else entertained. On the contrary the unanimous opinion is that the freedom of the Straits must be the cardinal point of the British policy.

The Daily Telegraph insists on immediate private conversations between the Allies before the Turkish peace terms are discussed. The paper anticipates that Mustapha Kemal Pasha is too wise to advance extreme demands but declares that the French attempt to distinguish between Thrace and Constantinople is a vain delusion since the Turks' reinstatement to the former is bound to affect the control of Constantinople.

NEED STATESMANSHIP

The Daily News says that the situation is calculated to appal the wisest statesmanship. The Powers are now unable to avoid a definite decision if they wish to avoid another disastrous upheaval in the Balkans, perhaps even beyond demands giving something more than paper security to the minorities whose miseries are a scandal to civilisation.

The Daily Mail declares that the situation is too critical to be handled any longer by amateurs. A sound policy must be followed, taking into account Imperial responsibilities and a clear understanding with France.

Writing in the Westminster Gazette, Mr. J. A. Spender champions M. Venizelos's original idea of a Balkan Federation, thus obtaining a settlement through the peoples most interested and who alone can be relied upon to maintain it.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Athens, Sept. 11.—M. Calogeropoulos has taken the portfolio of Foreign Affairs in the Triandafilakos Cabinet.

(Reuter's Service)

London, Sept. 10.—If the French press comments are any indication, the Anglo-French Entente was never in greater danger than it is today as a result of the Kemalist victories.

According to Reuter's Paris correspondent, the papers continue to talk of Mustapha Kemal's success almost as if it were a British defeat.

FEAR ATTACK ON BRITISH

The Petit Parisien urges that French troops should be immediately despatched to Bigha and other districts on the Eastern shores of the Sea of Marmora, where it alleges British contingents have replaced the Greeks. The newspaper patronisingly suggests that, if the Kemalists advance northwards and attack these British contingents, the latter will doubtless welcome the intervention of French troops as the Turks are not likely to refuse a French request to refrain from an attack on the British.

The Matin, referring to the reports that the Kemalists had been surreptitiously equipped with French arms, asserts that certain Greeks a year ago supplied Mustapha Kemal with machine guns and rifles.

It declares that the British Government must be disillusioned if they think that French soldiers will take part in a pro-Greek crusade.

"All we can give Britain is the advice that terms must be made with an enemy one cannot beat."

There are indications, however, that others besides the Action Francaise, mentioned yesterday, are alive to the danger of the Kemalists dictating terms to the Allies at Constantinople, as indicated by the Kemalist envoy, Ferid Bey.

The Echo National draws attention to the danger to Beirut of the Turkish occupation of Smyrna and says that France must not forget Turkey's attitude in the Great War.

The Temps says that it is unthinkable that the Turks will try to force the hand of the Allies with regard to Constantinople and the Dardanelles or raise the threat of Turco-Bulgarian co-operation in Thrace.

Another factor making for the triumph of soberer views in France is the fear of her protege nations of the Little Entente of Turkish re-entry into Thrace.

(China Press Service)

London, Sept. 9.—Unending throngs of starving, half-clothed and destitute Greek and Armenian refugees are clamoring at the gates of Smyrna begging for Allied assistance, according to wireless reports from the war sector.

The four railways running into Smyrna are choked with Greek troops and the highways leading to the city are black with refugee evicted families carrying all the possessions they could save on their backs.

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Sept. 9.—A Turkish column, commanded by Nourry Bey, has won the prize of £500 (Turkish) and the flag promised by Mustapha Kemal Pasha to the first commander to reach the Aegean Sea.

Bands of Turkish irregulars are expected at Smyrna where the Greek naval squadron is preparing to sail.

The Greeks' request for an armistice has reached Angora through the Allied High Commissioners.

The newspapers believe that the Turks will demand in their armistice conditions the complete evacuation of Asia Minor and Thrace, including Constantinople, by the Greek troops. The demobilisation of the Greek troops will take place immediately after the evacuation of Asia Minor, some of the younger classes alone being kept with the colors.

(Reuter's Service)

Athens, Sept. 10.—Troops returning from Anatolia have landed at the Piraeus in a most orderly manner. King Constantine in a proclamation exhorts the people to bear the terrible trial with patience and courage and refers to the glorious deeds of the army in the past. "It is the King's will to do what the Constitution allows and the nation's interests impose upon me. I confidently expect a demonstration of your known virtues, patriotism and concord."

Turks In Smyrna, Says Angora Report

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, Sept. 9.—A message from Angora states that the Turkish Nationalist troops have occupied the town of Smyrna.

London, Sept. 10.—Up to the present the Greeks have not admitted officially the fall of Smyrna but the latest direct messages from Smyrna give the text of a proclamation issued at midnight September 8, declaring the Greek administration to have ended and that the town had been handed over to the Allies, whose consuls had conferred and despatched a wireless message to Mustapha Kemal Pasha asking him to fix a meeting to discuss a peaceful entry and occupation by the Turks.

Armed British, American and French patrols have been landed and distributed over the city. The Greeks are working furiously to evacuate their troops before the enemy's arrival. Up to the present they have transported 15,000 of the worst casualties to Greece. Six thousand fresh troops have arrived from Thrace and have been rushed to the front to cover the evacuation. Headquarters have been moved to Mitylene whence operations will be directed.

Paris, Sept. 10.—Ahmed Farid Bey, the Kemalist representative in Paris, yesterday declared that the Kemalists wanted Constantinople Adrianople and Thrace, and added "We will clear the Dardenelles whatever troops are occupying them."

London, Sept. 9.—A telegram has been received in London stating that 500,000 refugees from the interior have arrived at Smyrna in a pitiable condition.

Smyrna, Sept. 9.—The situation is very grave. Bands of Greek soldiers, Armenians and Turks are indulging in incendiarism, pillage and murder.

The Allied Fleets have a concerted plan of action in the event of the arrival of the Kemalists.

Treatment for Dysentery.

Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy followed by a dose of castor oil will effectually cure the most stubborn cases of dysentery It is especially good for summer diarrhoea in children.

Sold everywhere

Athens, Sept. 9.—Greek troops in the Brusa sector are being evacuated via Mudania on the Sea of Marmora.

Paris, Sept. 9.—A message from Angora states that a request for an armistice has been received through the intermediary of the Allied High Commissions at Constantinople.

The Kemalists will probably demand that Greece evacuate Asia Minor and Thrace and pay reparations for damage.

Berlin, Sept. 9.—The German press comments on the situation in Anatolia as more an Anglo-French than a Turco-Greek conflict and fears that the strengthening of the French position in the Near East will prejudice the Belgo-German reparations negotiations.

Paris, Sept. 9.—The press comments exultantly on the Kemalist successes. The Echo de Paris declares that peace is impossible failing an immediate understanding with Turkey and hopes that Britain will not persist in her mistakes which, the paper declares, are responsible for the perilous situation.

The Action Francaise dwells on the danger of the presence of the Turks on the Bosphorus and says that the Allies who failed to avert the disaster to the Greeks must consider means of preventing a Turkish conquest of Constantinople similar to that of 1453.

POLICE SEEK UNCLE OF VICTIM IN ACID THROWING CASE

The case in which three loafers are charged with throwing acid over two Chinese sing-song girls was again up for hearing before Assessor Blackburn and Magistrate Kwan at the Mixed Court yesterday and was remanded for two weeks to enable the police to try and locate the uncle of one of the girls, who is alleged to have incited the attack.

The acid was thrown over the girls while they were riding along Shanse Road in a ricsha on the night of August 17 and the niece who is the principal complainant was badly burned about the face and shoulders. Subsequently the police arrested the three defendants, each of whom admits that he knows something of the case but denies participating in the throwing. One stated that he was offered $30 to attack the girl but refused the job.

It is stated that the chief victim's father died when she was 15 and she went to live with her uncle, who was employed in a Chinese theater and secured her a position as a sing-song girl. He took all of her earnings and she later went back to her mother, thus arousing his anger.

MR. H. BRIFFAUT, FRENCH JUDGE, IS LAID TO REST

Consular Official Passes Away After Brief Illness Of Few Days

Officials of the French Consulate and Concession, with representatives also of International Settlement official circles and many members of the French community yesterday attended the funeral of the late Mr. H. Briffaut, Judge of the French Consular Court, who died Saturday afternoon at Ste. Marie's Hospital after an illness of but a few days.

Mr. Briffaut, who was about 43 years of age, had been in Shanghai for only about four months, succeeding Mr. Toussaint as Consular Judge. He was regarded as a very able man, and had a wide knowledge of Chinese law, both modern and ancient. He had been magistrate in French Indo-China, studying there for many years. His home was in Verdun and he is survived by his widow and four sons in France.

The funeral service was held at St. Joseph's Church at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon and burial was at Lokawei. Among the officials of the French Consulate present were Consul-General A. Wilden, Mr. Dufuare de la Prade and Mr. P. Crepin. Mr. A. D. Blackburn, Senior Assessor of the International Mixed Court, was also among those attending and there were various officials of the French Municipality present. A guard of honor composed of French sailors escorted the body to the cemetery.

Obituary

"LANCIE" WADE

The death occurred early last evening of "Lancie" Jennie Mary Wade, daughter of Mr. John L. Wade, local tennis star, and Mrs. Wade. She was not quite thirteen years of age and had been ill with typhoid fever for the past three weeks at her home, 44 Boone Road.

Miss Wade was a student of the Shanghai Public School, a favorite with her fellows and a leader in class work. She was an ardent tennis follower, following her father's game closely during the past season up until the finals, when she was first taken ill. Mr. Wade was semi-finalist in the doubles and runner-up in the singles.

Funeral services will be held at 5:30 p.m. today at Bubbling Well Cemetery.

REV. ADOLPH KUNTZE

(China Press Correspondence)

Tsingtao, Sept. 4.—This afternoon in the foreign cemetery of Tsingtao there was the funeral of an interesting man, Rev. Adolph Kuntze. Mr. Kuntze was a member of the Berliner Mission, and for many years has had his headquarters in the city of Kiaochow.

This earnest man came to China some 34 years ago; after 10 years in Hongkong he came with Rev. Karl J. Voskamp to Tsingtao. During these 24 years he has been diligent in extensive evangelising; he has helped plant many churches. He had recently been on a long trip of three weeks down into the country around Kuchow. His death came after a short illness, which was caused by ptomaine poisoning.

His was the first baby boy to be born in Tsingtao: Mrs. Kuntze died in Kiaochow a few years ago from small-pox: two children also died at that time. Two daughters and a son survive.

FOR REMOVING SUPERFLUOUS HAIR.

No woman who has any sense of beauty will deny that superfluous hair is one of the greatest drawbacks to good looks.

Realising this, women of all times have put themselves to any expense, and have endured considerable pain and discomfort in order to rid themselves of this great disfigurement.

Nowadays electrolysis is a prevalent "cure" for this evil, but in reality this process involves a great deal of unnecessary expense, waste of time and pain.

The simplest quickest, and most effective treatment can easily be carried out by any sufferer, in the privacy of her home. This is the recipe:

Procure about 1 oz. powdered pheminol from your chemist; mix a sufficient quantity with a few drops of water into a stiff paste. Apply this carefuly and thoroughly to the hair you wish to remove, and allow the paste to dry. In a few minutes it can be gently scraped away. The skin is left absolutely free from hair, and should then be carefully washed in warm water, and if desired, lightly dusted with a little talcu powder. (Advt.)

Improving Crop Outlook Steadies Cotton Prices

(Reuter's Service)

New York, August 17.—Cotton traders have again turned to the opinion that all is not well with the crop. Bear enthusiasm, which held sway practically since the last Government report was issued, and not believed, has been greatly modified or supplanted by bullish sentiment, and the market at times has displayed much excitement and strength. President crop conditions do not necessarily mean that the Government saw on July 25 what the trade is now beginning to realise. Some of the best people in the trade, with extensive connections in the South, as well as the weekly Government reports themselves, indicated improving conditions throughout the belt after the crop report was issued. But the weevil were still there. The reason so little was heard of their activity was that the crop had not progressed to the point where weevil damage could be checked up.

This week, however, a more advanced stage of the crop and renewed rains over the eastern belt have led to alarming reports of weevil depredations, and the market, being heavily oversold, as a result of recent declines, became almost panic stricken, with advances of as much as $5 a bale in one day. To this news was added many complaints of shedding from Texas and Oklahoma, where the weather has again become warmer, following recent showers over many parts of the two States.

RAINS NOT HEAVY

It is beginning to appear now that the showers were not heavy enough in most sections to do much good. At the close of the week sentiment appears to have become very bullish and is anticipating another unfavorable crop report, which if present news and reports continue, would receive much more credit from the trade than did the last one. The market has been held back for some weeks by the very disquieting strike situation and the bad European political news, but the former now seems to be clearing and there is a good prospect for ending the coal strike, while many influential efforts are being put forth towards settling the rail strike also. The German situation is still very unsatisfactory, but is at the present time being overshadowed by the crop reports.

That the South is beginning to take notice of the many reports of increasing cotton cultivation in various parts of the world is shown in an editorial in a leading Texas paper which makes haste to assure the country that there need be little alarm over a prospective shortage of cotton of such extent as to make it necessary for other countries to go in heavily for cotton culture. The South, it says, can produce more cotton when it considers it profitable to do so, and points out that there are vast stretches of idle lands in Texas, Louisiana and other states which can be adopted to cotton culture if occasion demands. Talk of this kind sounds quite different from the utterances of some of the radical Southern leaders who have been urging farmers to cut down acreage or omit cotton altogether for a season or two in order to bring prices to what they term a profitable basis.

COSTLY LEADERSHIP

It is alleged leadership of this sort that has proved very costly to the Southern farmer in the past few years, but for all that he still continues to bend an ear to the siren's call. One of the local cotton men declares that the new England spinners who have been fondly expecting a 13 ½-million crop will have a sad awakening when the real shortness of the crop is realised. He emphasised the fact that cotton is not likely to be a weight of the market this fall because of the many co-operative associations scattered through the belt, which have had huge sums made available for them through the War Finance Corporation, and by banks, who allow the farmer 60 percent of the value of his cotton until such time as it is sold.

Nevertheless, for the good of the speculative markets and for the farmers themselves, as well as for the consuming world in general, a small crop this season will be almost a calamity. The best people in the trade would rather see a good crop and moderate prices which would encourage buying of goods, stimulate exports and benefit trade all round.

First Lloyd Film In Five Reels Is Coming Here

China rights for Harold Lloyd's first five-part feature, "Grandma's Boy," have been secured by Pathe Orient, Manager G. Weis of the local Pathe offices announced yesterday and the film will be screened in Shanghai shortly.

The production features the comedian in one of his greatest pictures and the cast also includes Mrs. Anna Townsend, 79 years of age, who plays the role of Grandmother in Lloyd's first five reeler.

CHANEY IS SENT TO BILIBID ON FOUR CHARGES

Sentences Aggregating Three And A Half Years Imposed In U. S. Court

Sentences and judgments that in the aggregate cover a term of imprisonment at Bilibid of three and a half years were formally handed down yesterday in the United States Court for China by Judge Lobingier in the case of Joe Chaney, lightweight pugilist, who pleaded guilty to four charges of forgery and of obtaining goods by false pretenses.

Chaney was arraigned on two charges of forgery and two charges of obtaining goods by false pretenses and he was given sentences of a year's imprisonment on each of the forgery charges, one year on one of the charges of obtaining goods by false pretenses and six months on the other, the penalties to be served one after the other.

It was disclosed that the recent typhoon was a factor in leading Chaney into the law's clutches after he had broken it, for he had bought a ticket and had timed his offenses with the idea of escaping by sailing for Manila on the steamer President Cleveland. Due to the typhoon, however, the Cleveland was held here over schedule for several days after it had gone aground at the mouth of the Yangtsze and in this period the bogus checks that Chaney had passed as a means to supply himself with a stake came to light and he was arrested. As he was without means to employ counsel the Court appointed Mr. A. Krisel as his attorney.

The two forgeries that Chaney committed were both in connection with checks on the American-Oriental bank. One was for $325 that he made payable to himself signing the name F. D. Shanhart and the other which was signed A. Moying was for $200. Chaney presented the latter at the Tuck Chang jewelry store on Broadway in payment for purchases of jewelry.

One charge of obtaining goods by false pretenses was based upon Chaney's performances at the store of the International Shoe Company on Szechuen Road, a Chinese company, from which he obtained four pairs of shoes and 14 pairs of silk socks, all valued at $61. It was for this offense that the sentence of six months was given.

Zee Wo and Company, jewelers at 121 Honan Road also were visited by Chaney who convinced them that he was a citizen with a bank account. Here he purchased four gold rings valued at $219.

In the American jail are now five prisoners under sentences to be served at Bilibid. These are Ralph S. Boyd, sentenced to five months for jail breaking, Frank Bowe sentenced to two years for forgery, George Donack, sentenced to a lesser term for vagrancy, a Korean, under sentence for assault and Chaney. The five are to be taken to Manila in a party.

France Reducing Army Expenditures

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Sept. 9.—The newspapers publish the text of the Note, addressed by the French Government to the Armament Reduction Commission of the League of Nations.

Spontaneously France reduces to 18 months the period of military service and largely reduces the number of her effectives as compared with those in 1914.

The total military expenditure, including that of the Navy and of the Colonies, has been reduced from 7,648,000,000 francs in 1920 to 4,910,000,000 francs in 1922.

League Will Ask Nations To Hold Down Drug Traffic

(Reuter's Service)

Geneva, Sept. 10.—The Fifth Commission of the League of Nations today discussed the opium traffic and unanimously passed a resolution, proposed by Mr. Gilbert Murray and amended in accordance with the suggestion of Lord Chelmsford, asking the Governments belonging to the International Opium Convention not to consent to give licenses for the importation of opium and other narcotics to which the Convention applies to natives of the countries which have not ratified or enforced the Convention and which have not adopted the system of control of exports and imports approved by the Assembly of the League on Sept. 30, 1921.

The resolution adds:

"The Commission considers the question important and urgent but, recognising its complicated technical character, is of opinion that the subject should be examined in detail by a consultative committee on opium before definite measures are taken and therefore recommends the Assembly to ask the Council to convoke a consultative committee as soon as possible to study the question and, if the committee reports favorably, the Council will be asked to give effect to the recommendations of the committee and not refer them again to the Assembly."

The Finance Commission of the League has appointed Mr. Adatchi (Japan) its reporter.

Two sub-Commissions have been appointed to examine the financial position of the League and the financial aspect of the final installation of the International Labor Office respectively. Colonel John Ward, who has been appointed a member of the second sub-commission, in the course of a speech contrasted the retrenchment in public departments in England with the generous emoluments of the officials of the League.

He said that the typists of the Secretariat received a larger salary than he did as a member of the House of Commons.

The budget for 1923 of the League and the International Labor Office exceeds Frs. (Gold)

Chinese Detective Shoots Man When Menaced By Crowd

Menaced by a crowd of Chinese after he had made an arrest Sunday night, a Chinese detective attached to Harbin Road police station fired his revolver and seriously wounded a moulder employed by the Asia Engineering Works, 318 Sawgin Road.

According to the police report the detective, who lives at 26 Sawgin Road, was twice visited Sunday evening by gangs of loafers, who created a disturbance outside the house. When they came the second time he rushed out and managed to arrest one of the gang. Others of the gang jostled the detective and the captive escaped. Then the crowd became menacing and the policeman drew his weapon and, as the crowd threatened, fired.

The wounded man was taken to St. Luke's Hospital and an operation was performed yesterday. His condition was reported as critical last night.

BABY'S BATTLES FOR HEALTH

And The Help Which Mothers Can Give.

No mother can expect that her child will escape all the ills to which babyhood and childhood are subject, but she can do much to mitigate their severity, and to make baby's battles for health easily won.

Venice Conference This Month, Is Hope

(Reuter's Service)

London, Sept. 11.—That the character of the Venice Conference will be radically changed is indicated in a Note presented at the Quai D'Orsay yesterday by the Italian Charge D'Affaires, inviting France to co-operate with the British and Italian Governments in sending representatives to meet the Turkish and Greek representatives at Venice to discover the possibility of establishing a preliminary basis of peace.

According to Reuter's Paris correspondent French diplomatic circles consider that a suspension of hostilities is necessary before a conference can be held and such suspension is entirely the concern of the opposing General Staffs.

As steps have, however, already been taken at Angora to secure an armistice, it is hoped that the Conference at Venice may open by the middle of this month.

In connection with the rumors that King Constantine may abdicate and M. Venizelos may be recalled, it is perhaps significant that M. Venizelos arrived in Paris today from St. Moritz.

HARBIN TRAMWAY CASE GOES OVER FOR TWO MONTHS

Further hearing of the important damage suit of the Beckman Linden Corporation of San Francisco against a group of capitalists who launched an extensive tramway and electric plant enterprise at Harbin, which is before the Chinese court at Harbin has been postponed until two witnesses may be called to testify from the United States. Mr. F. J. Schuhl of Schuhl and Schoenfeld and U. S. District Attorney Leonard G. Husar, as associate counsel, are representing the San Francisco corporation in the action in which the recovery of $800,000 is being sought.

The case came up for trial on September 5 and several sessions were held. The Beckman-Linden Corporation are sueing for commission on Taels 6,000,000 which amounts to about $800,000. The defence contends that $40,000 paid the plaintiffs represents their entire obligations while the latter asserted that this sum was to apply on the first $500,000 advanced for the promotion of the tramways.

After hearing the evidence the Court decided that the testimony of Engineer Beardsley and Robert Adams should be heard and they will come from the United States to testify. The case has been adjourned for two months.

SHANGHAI LAWN BOWLERS NOSE OUT HANKOW MEN IN THIRD INTERPORT GAME

Local Trundlers Annex Extra End In Close Match; Visiting Teams Beat Juniors

BY "THE SHOT"

In the third of the triangular series, which took place on Sunday afternoon at the Recs ground, Hankow met Shanghai and it turned out to be the most closely contested one of the three.

The re-arrangement of the visitors had worked wonders and it was only by the narrowest margin that they did not win their first Interport game away from home. After notching two singles the Shanghai went into the lead with a neat three; their advantage was short lived, however, as the visitors, playing like Trojans, gradually forged ahead and led at the 6th end, 8-4, and their advantage would have been greater had it not been for two splendid saving shots by Geordie.

Try how they would the homesters could not peel their opponents score and at the 18th end, the Hankow team looked an over winners with the score 19-15 in their favor. At this point, Hughie Gray, who had been bowling with deadly precision, lost touch with the green and Fraser Farrier began to put up some excellent woods, and thus when Geordie went up, instead of having to save, he found himself in the position of stopping his opponent from doing so. At the 21st end Shanghai were lying game with 2 shots but Owen, although blocked on each hand came down a bit merry and promoted one of his own to 2nd shot—19 all.

SHANGHAI WINS EXTRA

An extra end was played and Shanghai, scoring two shots, ran out winners of a most exciting game. For the visitors, E. Owen was deadly and never let up for a moment. H. Gray in the lead spoilt probably the best lead game ever seen in Shanghai by his shortcomings in the last three ends—nevertheless his exhibition was great. F. Bull was an excellent third while Teddy Clough justified his selection and held his opponent practically throughout the game.

To the credit of Mr. Geordie McMurdo lies Shanghai's victory, as he was bowling consistently throughout and moreover his remarkable saves when his team were all adrift were a feature of the game. Fraser Ferrier was not so deadly as we know him to be, and was inclined to fall narrow. Both G. B. Stormes and J. MacDougall have played better games although each in their turn put up some good shots.

Teams and scores:

Shanghai	v.	Hankow
G. McMurdo		E. Owen
J. C. MacDougall		F. Bull
G. B. Stormes		E. Clough
F. Ferrier ..21		H. Gray 19

INTERPORT TEAMS WIN

Both Interport teams were on show at Hongkew Park yesterday when they met the Juniors. The Hongkong team were skipped by Bob Lapsley and with the able assistance of Messrs. Gerrard, Russell and Wallace they put up a score approaching record, finally winning by 39 points to 13.

Teams and scores.

Hongkong	Shanghai J.G.C.
R. Lapsley skip	D. McAlister
W. G. Gerrard	Capt. Milligan
J. Russell	C. Richards
R. Wallace 39	E. M. Smith 13

The Hankow contingent followed up their excellent show on Sunday with a substantial win over a rink of Juniors skipped by Tom Spring. Hughie Gray took over the helm for Hankow and both he and E. Owen have now a scalp to take back to Hankow.

The Junior team played very well but could not hold their opponents who ran out winners by 25 points to 17.

Teams and scores:

Hankow	Shanghai J.G.C.
H. Gray skip	T. Spring
F. Bull	J. Ross Young
T. T. Rowland	P. Ephgrave
E. Owen 25	D. McLeod..17

SMOKER TONIGHT

Local and visiting interport lawn bowlers will gather at the Shanghai Club this evening for a smoking concert in honor of the visiting trundlers.

Mr. O. Crewe-Read, president of the Lawn Bowls Association, will occupy the chair and it is expected that there will be in the neighborhood of a hundred guests.

A highly promising program of entertainment has been arranged, and among those who will contribute numbers are Messrs. J. Robertson, Zellensky, Charles Parsons, H. Landers, Graham Barrow, Ling and others.

FAREWELL GIVEN HONGKONG AND KOBE SWIMMERS

Contestants In Interport Gala Guests At Astor Of S'hai Association

As the closing event of the Interport Swimming Gala that was staged here last week a farewell dinner for the visiting swimmers from Hongkong and Kobe was given last night at the Astor House by the Shanghai Amateur Swimming Association. Besides all those who took part in the big competition as contestants or officials and members of the Shanghai organisation, a number of others were present as guests, in all about one hundred.

Mr. J. H. McGregor, Chairman of the Shanghai Swimming Association, presided at the dinner, with Mr. A. E. James, Captain of the Kobe team, and Mr. G. E. Sewell, Captain of the Hongkong team, on his right and left. Incidents and events of the recent gala and reminiscences and stories of competitions of other years entered into the subject matter of addresses that were given by many of those present.

According to arrangements that have been made the visitors from Hongkong are to depart this morning on the steamer Yingchow and those from Kobe are to sail for home on Wednesday.

KLUBBING KOPS SHATTER BANK

Financial Architects Will Wear Mourning For Subsequent Moon

"Dere Limey Kops: We hereby request you to produce 11 victims for a defeat on the cricket ground, when and where convenient.

Yours Terrifically,
Trollope and Colls."

The above riot commenced on the 9th day of the 9th moon, in Gladiator Alley, Race Course. Yeorge MacSale spun the Kopeck and won, and the T. and C. lounge lizards were elected to bat.

Tom O'Rogers of T. and C. and Kanteen-Kommandant Kemp of the S. V. C. were the referees Buzz Leighton wuz Official Recorder.

Fat McCarthy and Mike O'Collins slid out to fix the Kops and Whizzbang Watson and Cock Carnell twirled the pill. Fat stayed for 2, "bowled Cock," and Ronald MacRichardson had to grab his willow stick. McCarthy fell for a high velocity one from the Whizzbang, reported sick, and called upon Sebastian Raper to officiate, while Cock Carnell consulted his abacus and sent Ronald back for a cipher. The T's and C's, lifted up their flagons and swore to do or dye.

Sebastian obliged the Kops by falling back for a three, his fate being sealed in Six-Gun Gabbutt's sticky mitt. Bowled Whizzbang W. Pierpoint, the Kopeck King joined hands with that villain of deepest Dye, who succumbed for a nix, Officer Crompton, a missionary in a well-known penitentiary, having taken advantage of his absence from the sticks. Jimmie Jenner swiped a 5 but could no longer face the twirling of the Whizzbang from Woosung. Larry Linge fell for a 3, a lightning grab from Kid Aiers fixing him good and proper. Bowled by the Prid.

Wiry Weeks walloped a notaing, Kid Aiers having focused the dotted lines on him. Bowled Six-Gun. Bully for the Kid. Pipe-strangler Singleton waltzed out to the arena, but only stayed long enough to swish the pill into the paw of O'Donovan McIsaacstein, the Copper star. Bowled Prid Pridmore, and all for a zero. The Single One wuz replaced by another Batchelor while the Kopeck King wuz collecting scores like a tram conductor on the warpath. MacIsaacstein flung the pill and knocked the K out of Kopeck, just when he had reached 46. The Batchelor wuz thru' with single blessedness and lone-someness and got for home. Pierpoint wuz the comet of the T's and C's, the only solitary one. Recorder Leighton said T. and C's wuz 51. Slow music wuz played by Rupert.

When the bar wuz cleared, O'Donovan, MacI. and Yeorge sailed out. Somebody's bowl got loose and dashed across the turf, which made Yeorge so sore gone wild he smashed his klub. The T's and C's wuz equally determined to cause more death in the Force. Yeorge fell for 7 and wuz succeeded by Cock Carnell. O'Donovan, being off duty wuz out for the day, but Cock wuz fixed for a quartet as bowler Richardson's witt ricocheted into his horoscope. Sebastian Raper wuz disqualified for smoking on the field but wuz reinstated on appeal. An ally of the T's and C's had reported 17 large murders at Louza Station so O'Donovan retired for 57. Whizzbang Watson, the Woosung Waster, had followed the Cock, but failed to retain his seat after the 15th hole. Bowled Renald. Kid Aiers followed amidst loud cheers, and swiped well. Larry Linge accidently got in his way and the boy stepped at the cipher. But this kid wuz sure good and the T's and C's wuz real glad to see him off. The Prid with his usual pop succeeded, and equalised the score, i.e., the zero part of it. Spiker Hotchkiss, with that courtesy for which all cops are famous, followed suit. The Kops had now accumulated a century and their sympathetic feelings overcame them. So they retired (to the Kanteen). In any case the play wuz getting weak so Kob Webb and Officer Crompton wuz not allowed to bat.

All the Police Defectives had reported that the T's and C's wuz practising with bricks for one month on the Hongkong Bank, and it wuz noticed that their wives and kids wuz present to see the Kops git walloped. Amongst those present wuz Mrs. and Miss Richardson, Mrs. Waklan (and husband), Count Wilhelm van Jones, the Marquis Bertrand de Bouvier and Baron Kilburn.

The T's and C's will wear mourning for one month.

French Woman Fails To Swim Channel

London, Sept. 9.—The Sketch announces that a French woman, Madame Sion of Dunkirk, has just established a record by swimming the English Channel from Cape Grisuez, France to within 4 miles of Dover.

She plunged into the water on the French coast at 1 o'clock Wednesday morning and was picked up exhausted 4 miles from the English shore at 3:35 o'clock in the afternoon after swimming 36 miles. After 12 hours of good weather she had to battle choppy seas.

St. Andrew's Team Beats Yangtszepoo

The Yangtszepoo Tennis Club were "at home" to St. Andrew's Tennis Club on their courts at Wayside Park Sunday afternoon, when nine couples from each Club tried conclusions in a friendly tournament, as a result of which victory went to St. Andrew's—6 games to 3. All the games were very keenly contested, and a particularly pleasing feature of the play was the marked good-fellowship and sportsmanship which prevailed.

The following were the teams:—Yangtszepoo: Mrs. Tilley and Mr. McLean; Miss McMurdo and Mr. F. Johnston; Mrs. Russell and Mr. Lingard; Mrs. Gray and Mr. M Gillivray; Mrs. Chalmers and Mr. Gray; Mrs. Hamilton and Mr. Ambrose; Mrs. Patterson and Mr. Russell; Mrs. Turner and Mr. Ogden, and Mr. and Mrs. Tarr.

St. Andrew's: Miss J. Pote-Hunt and Mr. A. V. White; Miss Mur. Davey and Mr. W. Train; Miss Kath. Lynch and Mr. G. Grant; Miss Jean Hunter and Mr. H. W. Strike; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wilson; Miss L. Yars and Mr. Chambers; Miss Doris Davey and Mr. G. Danson; Miss Gladys Pote-Hunt and Mr. Holmes; Mrs. James and Mr. R. Pote-Hunt.

A return match is scheduled for September 24.

PEKING MARINES DEPART AFTER TAKING FINAL GAME; CLAIM FAR EASTERN TITLE

Poor Baseball Features Deciding Game Of Series; Season Most Successful On Record

With the Ha-Kum-Jo Cup tucked safely away among their luggage as a souvenir of their Shanghai trip and claiming the Far Eastern baseball championship for the year, the Peking Marines boarded train yesterday morning for the capital, having beaten Shanghai in a poorly played game, 4-2, Sunday afternoon.

Sunday's victory gave the Marines three out of the five-game series and though Shanghai put up too inferior a brand of baseball to deserve anything else, the final match left the fans with rather a bad taste in their mouths. There was only one legitimate run scored in the nine innings, that one by a cynical slant of fate being credited to Shanghai. The locals could not deal effectively with the offerings of Bill Bailey, star hurler of the Northern crew, and the Marines did scarcely better with the curves of Mal Maloney, but their total of seven clouts dovetailed into more promising situations in the play.

A couple of hair-raising stops by Freddie Bills, the weird capture of a fly ball in left field by John Scott and a scintillant double play by Catcher Olson, Donovan and Thomas when Shanghai had three on and none out were about the only bright bits in the game. Shanghai had Regio Consolato Generale d'Italia in Shanghai.

Regnando Sua Maesta' Vittorio Emanuele III per grazia di Dio e volonta' della Nzione Re d'Italia Il R. Tribunale Consolare Italiano in Shanghai composto del Signor Giuseppe Biondelli R. Vice Console Presidente, e dei Signori Cav. Ernesto Denegri e Giuseppe Giachino, Giudici Assessori. Visto che la Societa' Anonima FAR EASTERN BANK con sede in Shanghai registrata presso questo R. Tribunale Consolare Civile e Penale con rogito addi' ventinove agosto millenovecentoventuno non ha piu i requisiti voluti dalla Legge Italiana e non ha piu capitali Italiani.

Constatato che l'Amministrazione di detta Societa non ha proceduto e non procede regolarmente e conformemente alla Legge.

Vista la dichiarazione degli attuali Direttori della Banca stessa Signori Roberto Alba e J. Oshima, secondo la quale non e' piu possibile attendere la riunione della assemblea generale degli Azionisti per deliberare la liquidazione della Societa', date le critiche condizioni dell' istituto stesso.

Visto il ricorso dei Direttori stessi col quale essi hanno chiesto e chiedono al R. Tribunale Consolare Italiano in Shanghai di provvedere alla liquidazione della Societa' ed alla nomina di ufficio dei relativi liquidatori.

DECRETA

A cominciare da oggi nove settembre millenovecentoventidue la Societa Anonima Far Eastern Bank e sue figliali ed agenzie e' dichiarata in stato di liquidazione.

A tal fine il Tribunale Consolare Italiano in Shanghai ha nominato e nomina liquidatori di detta Societa' i Signori Dottor Oscar Fischer ed Avvocato Giacomo Maranzana, ai quali vengono conferite le facolta' loro consentite dalla Legge ed ordina la trascrizione, affissione e pubblicazione del presente Decreto nei modi e termini stabiliti dall' Articolo 90 del codice di Commercio. Cosi' deliberato in Camera di Consiglio il giorno otto settembre millenovecentoventidue.

GUARANTY TRUST COMPANY VICTIM OF FORGERY GANG

Bank's Private Code Stolen By Someone In East, Belief

(Reuter's Service)

London Sept. 10.—The police of London, Quebec, New York and China are investigating a robbery of £32,000, of which it is alleged that the Guaranty Trust Company of New York are the victims.

A cable was received by the Trust Company's London offices from New York asking for the transfer of £32,000 from the account of a client to a person in England and only after the money had been handed over was it discovered that an ingenious fraud had been perpetrated, the cabled instructions not having emanated from the man who signed the cable.

Several persons are involved. The chief conspirator is believed to have gone to Quebec.

The Vice-President of the Trust Company expresses the opinion that a copy of their code was obtained from one of the Far Eastern correspondents of the Trust. He declares that the receiver cabled to Peking £25,000 of the proceeds, of which the Trust Company has recovered £15,000.

The Asia Banking Corporation here has been advised of the robbery and has been asked to aid in any way possible to clear up the fraud. All branches of the Asia Banking Corporation together with other Guaranty Trust Company correspondents throughout the world have been notified.

Ireland Isolated By Postal Strike

(Reuter's Service)

London, Sept. 10.—Telegraphic communication between England and Ireland has ceased as a result of the Irish postal strike.

London, Sept. 10.—The Irish postal employees struck at six this evening after rejecting the Government's offer to spread the reductions of wages over a period of three months. A Government manifesto denies the right of civil servants to strike and says that picketing will not be allowed as in the case of industrial disputes. The Government will use all its forces to prevent intimidation of loyal officials.

U. S. TARIFF

(Reuter's Service)

Washington Sept. 10.—It is understood that the Conference between the Senate and House of Representatives has reached a compromise on the question of valuation, which forms the basis for duties in the new Tariff Bill. The latter, in most cases, yielded to the Senate's proposed modified form of foreign valuation instead of the American valuation scheme.

Peking Marines Win Final Game

another chance when they crowded the bases with only one man down, but it evaporated when the subsequent civvies failed to connect with Bailey's fast ones.

By reason of their win over Shanghai in the late series the Peking nine lays claim to baseball honors in the East. They have beaten Fort Mills and Shanghai and declare the 15th Infantrymen at Tientsin to have forfeited by refusal to play a series. Shanghai's having trimmed Meiji is submitted as proving the Marines a better nine also than the snappy little Japanese college aggregation, one of the best in Japan.

Though much disappointment was felt by local fans over the outcome of Sunday's game there was the realisation also that it was the climax of the greatest baseball year in Shanghai's experience and Manager Gallop and his henchmen are to be congratulated most heartily for the splendid season of entertainment furnished. But more of that anon.

Following are the figures for the final of the series:

Japan Plans To Cut Arsenal Force 15,000

(Eastern News Agency)

Tokio, Sept. 10. — This Agency learns that the Naval Department has a plan to place before the conference of chiefs of naval arsenals throughout the country, to be held on the 19th, a bill for the dismissal of 15,000 workmen, who are engaged in the Kure Arsenal and others, as a sequel to the reduction of armaments.

Weihaiwei Parleys Are To Start Soon

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Sept. 7.—The Anglo-Chinese conference for the return of Weihaiwei is expected to begin its labors during the course of the present month.

The questions to be dealt with have chiefly to do with arrangements for the use of the port by the British fleet as a summer station, provisions for the safety of foreign residents and their representation in the administration of the territory, and perhaps the question of China's willingness to have Weihaiwei linked up by rail with the hinterland.

It is understood that the British delegates will probably be the British Consul-General at Tsinanfu Mr. Giles, the Acting Commissioner of Weihaiwei Mr. Blunt, and Commander Collins R. N.

Tales From The Sea

(New York Herald)

THERE are daily refutations of the notion that romance passed forever from the face of the seven seas with the development of steam and the internal combustion engine. The eternal and immutable elements of isolation and power still brood over the earth's waters, and man's passions and his love of adventure rise as high today as ever they did.

What tale from the old days when sails alone whitened the ocean can surpass the recent experience of the crew of the British steamship Arbeco, which crashed on the Renewa Rocks off Cape Race? The officers and men leaped on a patch of rock and stood huddled together watching the tide rise until it almost swept over them. Seeing that their ship was bound to sink, they clambered up its deck and cut away a boat, only to have it fall on the rock, breaking the mate's leg and staving a hole in the bottom of the boat. Once again the seaman's habitual readiness in overcoming difficulties rose superior to this combination of circumstances and the sailors patched the boat and made their way to land.

From Shanghai comes a tale in the day's news of a certain Captain Waarde setting sail for British Columbia in a twenty-three ton Chinese fishing junk, thirty-eight feet over all, with only three Chinese fishermen for his crew. The painted eyes on the sides of his little ship's prow will stare out over the great billows of the Pacific as the eyes of other junks may have stared long ago, but they will be the first ones to watch over such a passage for a time so long that no Pacific sailor can remember a like voyage.

Where in the old sea tales could a reader find any narrative of a wreck more tragic than the fate of the steam schooner Arctic, which crashed into the hulk of the steamship Whittier, lying, a battered shell, on Saunders Reef, seventy miles north of San Francisco? Where a story of the sinking of a vessel like that of the Spanish steamship Leonica off Gibraltar last year? Bought in America for $105,000 she was insured for £300,000, and this sum was claimed by her owners, but the insurance company declined to pay.

Here in the day's news is a tale of a fisherman out of Boston who was brought back to port after being adrift for four days in his dory, and on the same day a seaman was brought into San Juan, Porto Rico, after surviving a two days fight for life clinging to an empty barrel. Coming up the English Channel, only the other day, the second officer of the British steamship Ikala saw a mirage of inverted vessels with their funnels resting on other ships, and aboard the American steamship Half Moon the officers observed a huge area of ice with breakers plainly visible, yet the nearest reported ice field was 340 miles away.

In one day's news from the sea we read of motorboat pirates stopping an auxiliary schooner off Gun Key in Florida waters and killing her captain; of a swordfish tearing a hole in the planking of a Boston schooner off Georges Bank and of the officers and crew of the American freighter Stonewall being presented with medals for rescuing the crew of a Canadian fisherman in a gale on the Grand Banks. And as if to preserve something of the spirit of humor of the days of sail, the ship Mazatian, on arriving at Tacoma recently, reported that a small brood of chickens and ducks was hatched out of the cook's store of eggs while the ship lay in the doldrums with the mercury in the thermometer standing at 102.

Captains courageous still sail the seas, and tragedy and romance are their ever present companions.

Bobbie And His Pa

Yure third cuzzin? sed Pa, How fine, sed Pa.

Yes, sed Ma, his naim is Eugene Brittelwurst, sed Ma, he is sum kiad of third cuzzin. I think he gets his geenyus from deer old daddy, sed Ma.

Fine, sed Pa aggenn. I bet he wont speak to you now, sed Pa.

How silly, sed Ma. There is not one con-seeted hair in the hed of anybody on our side of the fambly, sed Ma. I know Eugene will be jest a big, romping boy, no matter how much Fame he may git, sed Ma.

He was romping wen he was here, O. K., sed Pa. While he was romping, sed Pa, he romped away with twenty beans of mine I loned him to git his dress sute out of Heck, sed Pa. Maybe now he will kick in with that twenty, sed Pa, though most geenyuses kick out beefoar they kick in, sed Pa.

Thare you set, raving about a misorabul small sum of munny wen you have jest herd that one of my fambly has done sumthing reely grate, sed Ma. You are most pro-voing at times, sed Ma.

Bobbie, sed Pa, wen you grow up and go running around with a bulgering bankroll, sed Pa, beewair of geenyuses. Reemember the words of yure old dad, Bobbie, sed Pa.

I do not believe he borrowed twenty from you, sed Ma. You are joaking.

Am I? sed Pa. You jest rite and menshun that twenty to him sed Pa, and see if I am joaking.

Anyway, he has added fame to our family naim, sed Ma, and I would forgive him for any munny matter in which he may have been careless in, said Ma.

If you rite and ask him for that twenty I will give you fifteen of it, said Pa.

Will you, deerest? sed Ma. Then I shall rite him this vary nite, sed Ma. He must be maiking lots of munny now, sed Ma, and I think it is a shaim that he shud be keeping yure hard earned munny from you. I will tell him ware to head in, sed Ma. I will show him. At what are you grinning at? sed Ma.

At you, sed Pa, to think that you cud git so angry at one of yure own side of the family, sed Pa.

But I have a rite to the munny, sed Ma, he can well afford to pay it, the retch, sed Ma, jest wait till you see the letter I rite him.

No matter how grate or famus people are, if they owe munny it aint a boost it is a Knock to them. I bet that will be a feerce letter wich Ma sends to Mister Eugene Brittlewurst.

The American Accent In England

BY FRANK H. VIZETELLY

Mr. Windsor I. Dagget says: "Broad a and flat a came into fashion in England at different periods of time." Your correspondent says: "The general reign of flat a in England lasted from the sixteenth century until about 1775; then broad a came in," and he adds: "By 1806 Webster recognised as Italian a."

It is interesting to note that Mr. Daggett places the transition from the broad a to the flat a at the year 1775. My researches have brought to light the fact that the a in Saxon writing sometimes represented the sound of a in van, sometimes the a in father. As a matter of fact, Professor Skeat pointed out that the long vowels in Anglo-Saxon were sounded as the Italian vowels are sounded now, and those had the values of ah, eh, ee, oh and oo. We find the Saxon a retained in awful, awl, alder, apple, black, garlic and swallow. This Saxon a, both long and short, or, if you prefer it, broad and flat, has been variously modified, as in such words as alms, bath, fat, father (which I recently heard pronounced fayther within thirty miles of Boston), fathom, fast, glass, grass, gnat, etc. Some weakenings of a occurred in the literary Saxon period and were corrected in English—aldorman, caldorman, alderman; half, healf, half; ward, weard, ward; al, eal, all; calf, cealf, calf. In one or two of these the sound of the English vowel is not a but rather au, which serves to indicate a return to the original and too often supplanted a. This au, preserved in some of our words, as chaunt, launch and paunch, is the result of the effort made to indicate the sound of the French a as in chant, lancer and dance.

In all our large towns there is a marked difference between the speech of the educated and the under-educated classes. This is most noticeable in London and New York. The difference between standard English and popular English extends over the entire English-speaking world, and many popularisms of London reappear in the speech of Birmingham, of Liverpool and of the United States.

Palsgrave, who graduated at Cambridge, Oxford and Paris, writing on the subject of the sound of a said: "The sounding of a, which is most generally used throughout the French tongue, is such as we use with us where the best English is spoken, which is like as the Italians sound a, or they with us that pronounce the Latin tongue aright." See "Les clarcissement de la Langue Francoyse," which, although its title is French, is written in English and was issued in 1530.

Sweet, in his "History of English Sounds," says: "The tradition of the old a (a as in father) was still kept up by the influx of provincial speakers, so that the two sounds really existed side by side."

As the late Professor Lounsbury put it, pronunciation lost its orthoepic recognition in one-quarter of the English-speaking world may be found employed and sanctioned in some other. As an example of this he cited lev'er, a pronunciation authorised by Webster in 1828, but the existence of which is not conceded in any English dictionary, the word being pronounced lev'er in England. Johnson in 1755 indicated lev'er, notwithstanding the fact that his contemporaries all noted le've'r.

As a matter of effort, it is next to impossible to ascertain the pronunication of a whole people and when that pronunciation crosses the sea, who shall predict the form that it may take? Few persons who have studied the subject even superficially would dare to express themselves positively upon many points; yet, says Lounsbury, "there is nothing more common than to hear some person lay down dogmatically what the universal practice is in England or in America."

In Great Britain as in the United States the same words are pronounced differently in adjacent counties or States, the most noticeable feature in Great Britain being the passing of the broad a, before the invasion of the South by the Scot, the Strathclydian, the Lancastrian, Northumbrian and Mercian, who have brought with them the shorter a and, to my ear, the more euphonious sound. One has but to mix with people who speak English in England itself or in Scotland, in Canada or in the United States, and to come in contact with the Australians, New Zealanders and South Africans to note that in the mouths of each of these some of our homely words take varied forms—forms that lead one to a very different conclusion from that arrived at by Professor Earle when he said that "the English language has passed that stage in which words are palpably modified to meet the requirements of the ear," for modifications continue and, judging the future by the past, it seems most likely that they will continue to the end of time.

Industry And Reparation

BY CHARLES H. GRASTY

London, August 6.—The chief barrier to a settlement of the reparation problem is the real difference in economic fundamentals in France and England. In the latter country the payment of the indemnity would close down a large percentage of British industry. France, being an agricultural rather than an industrial country, doesn't have this danger to the same extent. In England people pay their taxes and look pleasant. In France a large portion of taxes remain unpaid on the theory that the deficit will be made good by German reparations.

Among Lloyd George's friends it is said that the Prime Minister has come around to the belief that England can't afford to accept payments from Germany in any material amount. The acceptance of German shipping is pointed to as a bitter experience for its effect on British shipbuilding. A Parliamentary leader said to me the other day: "We should have taken the ships and promptly sunk them."

Robert Donald, a well-known editor, speaking of the Channel tunnel, said that it could be built for the price of a firstclass battleship. The benefit of the tunnel, both to England and the Continent, is universally admitted. When a member of the Cabinet was asked why the project was not carried forward, his reply was: "The military people are holding it up." Would it affect England's island position? It could be flooded any minute from either side. And what possible enemy does England fear? Is it France?

The King's big garden party and the generally democratic methods adopted by the royal family bring to mind the great change in the relation between the throne and the people in the last few years. King George himself, in his private conversations shortly after the outbreak of the war, expressed himself dubiously on the future of monarchical institutions. He was prepared to see the adoption everywhere of democratic forms as the logical consequence of the abuses of monarchy in Germany. The King and Queen and the Prince of Wales have brought about a great change and it is doubtful if the people of England were ever before so contented with the monarchic institution.

All London is talking about Lord Northcliffe and the great press which he has controlled. Everywhere one hears expressions of sympathy for the fallen giant of British journalism. Accompanying these expressions is general gratification that the Northcliffe papers are moderating the extremes of policy which followed the break-down of their head. Incidentally, one of the chief reasons for hope of agreement with France and an early reparations settlement is that the Northcliffe press, particularly "The Thunderer," no longer holds a brief for the French extremists. If the new policy is continued, it will enable Lloyd George to go ahead with his scheme of general pacification.

There is much favorable comment on J. P. Morgan's course in connection with the bankers' conference. He went to Paris as a financier and business man and maintained his position throughout. Knowing nothing about politics, he firmly refrained from entering that field.

After doing all he could in his own proper sphere he gave a candid explanation of his position and retired.

The non-action of the bankers' committee may, after all, be more potent for results than any action that could have been taken in the peculiar circumstances.

There is an underlying faith that the Irish situation is going to work out in the end, and, looking some distance ahead, that the South and the North will come together and achieve Irish unity. The bitter experiences of these past years are bringing the people of Ireland to a more thoughtful and worldly, if less romantic and emotional, viewpoint. Undoubtedly the vast majority of the Irish people today are desirous of seeking prosperity and happiness through law and order, and the present generation may see the attainment of that goal.

"One leads where many follow."
Hall's Distemper has led the way to a new era in house decoration—the era of brighter, cleaner and healthier homes.
It is the most durable of all decorations, lasting for years with freshness unimpaired, whereas wall-papers deteriorate from the first day by fading and accumulating dust and dirt.
Hall's Distemper is a thorough disinfectant, and is applied directly upon the wall, forming a hard surface, from which dust and dirt may be "spring-cleaned" by lightly sponging with warm water.
Hall's Distemper (Registered Trade Mark) is a unique preparation and has the recommendation of leading sanitary authorities, architects, and decorators everywhere.

Einstein At The Bar Of The Eclipsed Sun

BY GARRETT P. SERVISS
Eminent Astronomer and Authority on Subjects of Scientific Interest.

On September 21 a total eclipse of the Sun will be visible along a "shadowpath," over a hundred miles in average width, and running from the northeastern corner of Africa, south of the Red Sea, across the Indian Ocean and the continent of Australia to a point in the Pacific Ocean north of New Zealand. The eclipse will not be visible on our side of the globe because that side happens to be turned away from the sun during the time that the moon is exactly between it and the earth.

This eclipse possesses extraordinary interest for the reason that during its period of totality, which is unusually long, amounting to more than five minutes at some of the places along the shadow-path where observers will be stationed, photographs will be made for the special purpose of testing decisively the claim that the deflection of a star passing close to the sun records exactly with the Einstein theory of relativity and thus serves as a proof of the correctness of that theory.

While Einstein's theory meets with enthusiastic acceptance from many mathematicians on purely mathematical grounds, it has been, if not absolutely rejected, at least seriously questioned by many astronomers and physicists. The theory itself is not capable of statement except in terms of mathematics and by disregarding the most evident realities of the sensual world. How far it lies from the actualities of human experience is strikingly indicated by the fact that some of its most conspicuous advocates have seriously drawn upon the amusing futilities of the extravaganza called "Alice in Wonderland" for illustrations of the kind of world, or universe, in which, if we accept Einstein's ideas, we must regard ourselves as living.

Now, the relativity of motion in itself is nothing new, and nobody ever thought of disputing it. It was not discovered by Einstein, but it simply served him as a starting point for his mathematical speculations. The peculiarity of his theory—and what may prove to be its fatal weakness—is that it seems to be practically unprovable by any verifiable facts in the domain of physics. Einstein himself has admitted that it has only three material legs to stand on, and that if these fail he does not know whither to turn in search of verification.

The three legs are: First, the deviation of light passing near the sun, or other very massive body; second, certain slight peculiarities in planetary motion illustrated by the movement of the perihelion of Mercury, and third, a shift of the lines of the solar spectrum toward the red end.

One of these, the last just mentioned, has never even been established, and it remains purely speculative, all observations made to test it having given negative, or contradictory, results. Verification of the first two has been claimed, but in both cases it is disputed. With regard to the motion of the perhelion of Mercury, not only do some astronomers maintain that that other known causes sufficiently account for it, but it has been affirmed that Einstein's own calculations prove inconsistent with themselves when applied to other planets. There remains the first leg, viz., the deviation of light in a powerful gravitational field like that of the sun.

It has been stoutly maintained that the photographs taken during a preceding eclipse, in 1919, proved the validity of Einstein's claim. But on that occasion some photographs which gave directly contrary evidence were arbitrarily rejected on more or less plausible grounds, and this has remained a bone of contention, which, it is hoped, may be removed by the result of the observations to be made at the coming eclipse. If, on the other hand, the results on this occasion are definitely opposed to the Einstein theory, a possibly fatal blow will be dealt to it, at least in the minds of all except those who hold it on the ground of pure mathematical theory, scorning all physical bases, or limitations.

It should not be supposed that the deviation of a light ray passing close to the sun is something that cannot be explained except upon Einstein's theory. So far is it from being true that Newton's theory of gravitation perfectly accounts for the phenomena, except that it makes the amount of the deviation just half as much as Einstein's theory calls for. The photographs taken at the former eclipse, but rejected, showed a deviation accordant with Newton's instead of with Einstein's theory. No wonder, then, that astronomers are eager on this occasion to get the most exact and accurate results that can possibly be obtained. The process, in principle, is very simple—merely to photograph the stars seen near the hidden sun, comparing their positions afterward with those on photographs of the same part of the sky made at night with the sun absent.

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is particularly a preparation for Infants and Children made agreeable to the taste, acceptable to the stomach and pleasant in its action. It has been in use for over thirty years and has always been one of the most highly esteemed of all cathartic preparations. It has one great advantage over other preparations of its kind in that while it opens the organs readily and completely, it does not have a tendency to produce subsequent constipation so much to be dreaded.

It was only after years of research in the fields of herbs and roots for a combination of purely vegetable matter that would have all the virtues of Castor Oil, without its disagreeable, nauseating properties, especially when used for infants or children, that the formula used in Fletcher's Castoria was found, and which for over 30 years has proven its worth. Try it.

Save the Babies.

Infantry mortality is something frightful. We can hardly realise that of all the children born in ivilised countries, twenty-two per cent., or nearly one quarter die before they reach one year, thirty-seven per cent., or more than one-third, before they are five, and one half before they are fifteen! We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save many of these precious lives. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of narcotic preparations. Drops, tinctures and soothing syrups sold for children's complaints contain more or less opium or morphine. They are, in considerable quantities, deadly poisons. In any quantity, they stupefy, retard circulation and lead to congestion, sickness, death. To avoid any possibility of giving your child opiates, or narcotics of any kind, keep Fletcher's Castoria in the house, and Save the Babies.

Weather Report

10.—The anticyclone becomes very heavy in Hokkaido, and the pressure rises all over Japan. The typhoon, a violent one, advances towards NW, threatening to pass between Naha and the Meiaco-Simas and to attack the Eastern Sea. Heavy cyclonic winds in the typhoon; moderate E to SE breezes along our coasts. Fine day in Central China; overcast weather in the South; rain in N Formosa.

11.—Pressure still above the average, but with a tendency downwards. The breeze is backing to the E and freshening. The weather gets overcast, with penetrating humidity.

Korea Would Slash Customs Fifty Percent

The Korean Governor-General has decided to abolish half of the Customs duty in Korea, a question which has been pending since the annexation of Korea to Japan, according to the Japanese press. The total abolition of Customs duty has been planned by the authorities, but circumstances prevented them from executing it and half sum out of the total revenue of Y. 7,000,000 will be abolished from the next fiscal year.

The matter is now under arrangement by Mr. Wada, director of finance bureau, of Korea, with the Finance Department authorities and will be announced shortly. The duty on liquor and textiles, which forms the major portion of Customs receipts, amounts to Y3,600,000, but no reduction of these duties will be made. Partial abolition of duties will be made on goods other than liquor and textiles. The matter will be presented to the next session of the Imperial Diet for endorsement.

Financial And Commercial News

Exchange Fluctuations

Asia Banking Corporation

September 11, 1922

Spot and Forward Bar silver were each down ⅛d. in London on Saturday. The New York price declined to 69½ cents and London-New York cross rate is unchanged.

Our official rates here today were unchanged from Saturday.

Our market here opened on the easy side, became steady to firm later on in the morning but eased off again in the afternoon. At the opening business in Sterling was done at 3s. 5½d. for September and 3s. 5⅞d. for October and 3s.5⅝d. for November-December delivery. Gold Dollars were done at 77¼ September and 77⅜ for forward delivery. After buying a fair amount at these rates, speculators stopped and the market firmed up until at the Tiffin interval there were sellers of Sterling at 3s. 5⅝d. September, 3s. 5⅞d. October and 3s. 5¾d. for November-December delivery.

There were sellers of Gold Dollars at the same time at 77⅜ September, 77½ October and 77⅞ for forward delivery.

However, later in the afternoon speculators again became buyers, buying a fair amount of Sterling for November delivery at 3s. 5⅞d.

The market closed with sellers and buyers at this rate for November and sellers at the same rate for December. There were sellers of Gold Dollars at the close at 77¼ September, 77⅜ October and 77½ for forward delivery.

Practically all the demand today was from speculators, banks being not anxious to buy except for near delivery. They were quoting 3s. 6½d. for Sterling bills, 78¾ for Gold Dollar bills and 1030 for Franc bills.

China sold silver in London on Saturday and India bought, the market closing steady. There was nothing doing in the New York market on Saturday.

Singapore Rubber Auctions

Singapore, August 23, 1922

Since our last report London has dropped to 6¾d. for spot, but recovered again slightly to 6⅞d., at which figure the market has been stagnant for several days. New York has been reported down to 13½ cents, and dull owing to strikes. The local market is apparently still oversold, and sellers are holding out for prices about ⅝ above the London parity.

There was a fair demand at this week's auction, but prices show again a slight decline on the week. Of the 835 tons catalogued, 713 tons were offered and 599 tons sold.

Awarded Singapore Standard Sheet selling at 23¾ cents was in good demand, but has declined ½ cent since our last report; lots in cases fetched 24 cents. Sheet equal to Standard was in good favor at the above price. Off Quality parcels were shown a fair amount of interest. Awarded Standard 1st latex Crepe was, together with Crepe equal to Standard, well competed for; the demand for these grades continues to be good, and a slight premium is obtainable. Off Color Latex and Mottled Crepes found buyers. Brown, Dark and Barky Crepes sold to an interested market at very fair prices, being either unchanged or slightly higher as compared with last week's auction.

Federal Court In U. S. Overrules Rail Strike Injunction

(Reuter's Service)

Washington, Sept. 9.—A peculiar position has arisen owing to the judge of the District Court of Columbia over-riding the Federal Court order restraining the railway strikers from interfering with the operation of the railroads.

The judge has temporarily enjoined the United States Marshal from interfering with a meeting of the Electrical Workers' Union officials or doing anything to prevent strike activities beyond the terms of the Federal order.

It is believed that this is the first instance in which members of the labor party have appealed against the execution of an injunction.

A Good Suggestion.
Try Chamberlain's Tablets when bilious or constipated. You are certain to be much pleased with them. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect.
